Sou.Sunita Mahendra Ranpise ..Petitioner

vs.

Shri Mahendra Janardan Ranpise ..Respondent.

Shri Rupesh Bobade for petitioner.
Shri U.B.Nighot for respondent.

CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIARI J.
7th December, 2007

P.C.

1. The order under challenge is interlocutory and, therefore, does not require interference at this stage. If the petitioner is aggrieved by the refusal of the Trial Court to permit amendment to the written statement, she can always make a grievance with regard thereto in case the final order is adverse to her. While challenging the final order even this aspect can be highlighted.

2. That apart, nothing prevents her from making an application to the Trial Court to bring on record necessary and relevant documents including the letter and such application, if made, must be decided on its own merits and in accordance with law so also uninfluenced by the fact that amendment to the written statement is refused. Petition is dismissed.
